

Durham Woodworking Club
Waiver of liability and release

The undersigned, in consideration of receiving permission from the Durham Woodworking Club and the South Simcoe United Church to utilize its woodworking equipment, tools and facilities hereby releases, discharges, and acquits the said Durham Woodworking Club and South Simcoe United Church and each and every current and future member thereof and each and every current and future officer, director and group leader of such club individually and in his capacity as such officer, director or group leader of and from any and all claims for loss, property damage or personal injury of any nature whatsoever, including death, resulting in any way from acts, actions, omissions, or negligence of any of the parties released above and which are in any way connected with the maintenance, use, operation or presence of woodworking tools and/or which occur during the teaching, conducting, exhibiting, participating in or permitting the performance of any form of woodworking activity, whenever located.

The undersigned specifically acknowledges, recognizes and appreciates all of the risks of injury and the probability of serious injury or death from participating in the aforesaid woodworking activities and assumes all risk of any form whatsoever occasioned by participation in the aforesaid woodworking activities.

The undersigned further covenants and agrees that he or she will indemnify and hold harmless the parties released above from and against any suit, claim, loss, damage, cost charge or expense, including attorneys' fees, arising wholly or in part out of any act, act or omission or negligence of the undersigned which is in any way connected with the maintenance, use, operation or presence of woodworking tools and/or which occurs during the teaching, conducting, exhibiting, participating in the observing the performance of any form of woodworking activity wherever located.
